architecture construction in Hanoi. Nowadays, there are still many art performances taking place here, if you are interested, don't hesitate to get in touch with us to buy a ticket.

- Sword Lake (Ho Guom/Ho Hoan Kiem): Called "the heart of Hanoi", Sword Lake is located right in the middle of the city center. The site hides a magical historical legend about one of the greatest kings in Vietnam - Emperor Le Loi and how he borrowed and returned the magic sword from the Golden Turtle (Kim Quy) God to prevent the invaders. Also, just nearby the lake, you will find the "Ly Thai To Monument", which was built to honor King Ly Thai To who was found in Thang Long Capital (Hanoi today)
- St. Joseph's Cathedral: Saint Joseph Cathedral is at 40 Nha Chung St., Hanoi (just 5 minutes walking from Sword Lake). It was built in 1886 with neo-gothic architecture and was inspired by Notre Dame de Paris. The cathedral is still in use now and is also the headquarters of the Archdiocese of Vietnam.
- Hoa Lo Prison: It was built by the French and called Maison Central - what an elegant name for a colonial prison that was a nightmare for every prisoner here.
- West Lake & Tran Quoc Pagoda: Ho Tay or West Lake is the largest freshwater lake in Hanoi and is also called as "lungs of the city". Lying on a small island in the West Lake is Tran Quoc Pagoda - a Buddhist temple built in the 6th century and is the oldest one in Hanoi.
- Huu Tiep Lake and The B52: You will have a quick visit to the B52 crash site, which marks Vietnamese soldiers' victory in the Vietnam war. From this site, our tour guide will also take you to a nearby market and observe the locals' daily life.
- Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum: The last stop in your itinerary for Hanoi full-day city tour is the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, where the greatest leader of the Vietnamese people rests in peace. You can admire the mausoleum from the outside and take pictures.

- Before bringing you back to the hotel, the tour guide will take you to a nearby vendor/restaurant to enjoy tasty Vietnamese foods.
