DAY 3: SIEM REAP - PREK TOAL FLOATING VILLAGE BY BOAT

Morning

- At around 08:00, you will be picked up and driven to the port at Mechrey for about 30-40 minutes to embark on the traditional wooden boat.
- This 1-hour-30-minute journey boat will take you to the Prek Toal floating village across the flooded forest and the great lake. Your guide will give you more information throughout the route on the lake's distinct hydrological system, habitat, flora, and wildlife. On the boat, snacks (fresh fruit, coffee, or tea) will be provided.
- When getting to the floating village, you will tour the environmental teaching center and the water hyacinth craft shop, then have the chance to interact with the Saray women. Take a weaving class at Tonle (the water hyacinth handicraft cooperative) to make your own travel souvenir! These sessions are crucial for the weavers' self-confidence and provide a rare opportunity for visitors to engage in conversation with locals.
- You will have lunch in the Community Restaurant at 12:00.

Afternoon

- At around 13:00, you will learn how the locals have adapted to their floating and constantly changing environment on a traditional Khmer paddle boat. To be more specific, you visit a family who lives on a floating house to observe the customs, then continue to the crocodile farms, fish farms, floating schools, and floating gardens. This is a rare chance to see a rare way of life.
- At 15:00, continue the trip to the Environmental Research Station to see a sweeping view of the community and return to Siem Reap and check into your hotel at around 17:00.
- Enjoy a goodbye dinner then spend the last night in Siem Reap.
