DAY 2: HOI AN - TRA QUE VILLAGE CYCLING - HOI AN WALKING TOURMorning

- Have breakfast at the hotel before our guide picks you up.
- You continue moving to a bike rental store to select a suitable bicycle for your trip and ride to a local farm in Tra Que Village.
- Stroll through the town, explore the gardens and fields, and assist the local farmers in their agricultural activities by helping them plant seeds, harvest the land, and cultivate vegetables, etc.

NOTE: These activities will differ subject to your visiting season.

- Have a delicious meal of regional specialties while socializing with the natives.

Afternoon

- During lunch, you will be instructed on how to pick and package the veggies.
- Come back to Hoi An and stroll through the town's streets. Go on foot through the twisting valleys close to the Thu Bon River, sometimes pausing to capture photographs along the way.
- Have a look at the historic architecture of the Japanese Covered Bridge, which dates back to the 17th century.
- Take a visit to the Fujian Assembly Hall, which served as a center of prayer for the local population in the 17th century. At the wet market, you may get an up-close look at native living habitats.
- Visit the historic district, bring back some lovely items before finishing the trip and return to your accommodation.

Evening

- Free at your leisure to savor local food and wander around the town the whole night.
