Day 3: Historical highlights of Ayutthaya

Morning

Today, you will discover the historical highlights of Ayutthaya by minivan and boat on this day trip to the ancient capital of Thailand. Departing from Bangkok in the morning, we first reach Bang Pa-In Palace, boasting a mix of European, gothic, and Thai-Buddhist architecture.

- You will hop back into the minivan and take a short trip to Wat Yai Chai Mongkol on the eastern banks of the Pa Sak River, which was built by King U-Thong
- The next stop is Wat Phra Sri Sanphet, a temple that forbids monks to enter (due to its ‘royal’ status), and then on to Wat Mahathat, a highly-sacred temple famous for its Lord Buddha relics and traditional style. What seems to be the most prominent landmark of the temple is the head of a sandstone Buddha image entwined in the roots of a Bodhi tree.
