DAY 2: KAMPONG CHHNANG - KAMPONG TRALACH - OUDONG

Morning

In the early morning, the ship cruises across Tonle Lake to arrive at Kampong Chhnang province. The provincial capital Kampong Chhnang is an easygoing river port town that welcomes plenty of visitors despite Kampong Chhnang being considered a big fishery port.

Let's admire the beauty of floating villages along the banks of this wonderful province

After embarkment, we'll visit a Khmer Village and get to know the local life of those living close to the canal system

Then continue to go on an excursion to a local market. You can explore the local culture with the crowded atmosphere in this unique market. Besides, you also can try some local cuisine as well as other products

After a morning excursion, we return to the cruise for lunch while the cruise is heading to Kampong Tralach

Afternoon

We arrive at Kampong Tralach this afternoon. This is known as "Port of the Winter Melon" and is a district in the southeast of Kampong Chhnang Province in central Cambodia

After getting off the cruise, we'll go on a bus tour to explore Vihara at Wat Kampong Leu Pagoda, which has been famous for marvelous wall paintings

Then, experience an ox cart (common transportation here) to get back to the cruise

There, a bus will take you to Oudong. It was the capital of Cambodia, but now Oudong Hill is a quiet area that includes many wonderful constructions.
