- 1st stop: You will take the ferry to Bangkok's greatest Buddhist site, the Grand Palace. Incredibly beautiful pagodas, stupas, statues, and temple buildings can be found at this tourist destination, all of which are examples of traditional Thai Buddhist architecture.
- 2nd stop: Wat Phra Kaew, also located on same grounds, is where the majority of visitors go to see the priceless Emerald Buddha, which dates back to the 14th century.
- 3rd stop: We continue our tour to the spectacular spot of the Grand Palace, which is Wat Pho. Follow your guide's lead to the main building, housing an enormous 160-foot Reclining Buddha, depicted in his final state of illness.
- Next up is Wat Suthat temple, best known for its giant red swing outside. Let's explore the temple grounds after your short drive across the Old Town in the back of a local tuk-tuk.
- Stop to relax after the tour and enjoy lunch at the local restaurant.

Afternoon

- Travel on to the 'House of Bowls', where villagers have made alms bowls for monks for over 300 years, and a Buddha statue factory, where you can observe fascinating work being done.
- Wat Saket, also called the "Golden Mount," is the next stop on the walking trip. The temple is built atop a constructed hill, and the view from its highest point is well worth it.
- Before heading back down, you might want to spend some time at the Rattanakosin Exhibition Hall, a museum showcasing artifacts from the Rattanakosin era.
- When you are done exploring, take the local public boat at Klong Sansab back to the downtown area, where you may transfer to the BTS Sky-train and get back to your hotel.

NOTE:

- Visitors are highly recommended to wear long pants, shoes that cover the heel, and shirts that cover the upper arm (no vests) to show respect to the Thai people.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodation: Hotel in Bangkok

DAY 3: FULL DAY DAMNOEN SADUAK FLOATING MARKET & RIVER KWAI

Morning

- 07:30: Start your private tour with an early morning departure with your guide, heading for the province of Ratchaburi, around 100 kilometers southwest of Bangkok.
- First, you will head to Damnoen Saduak, located in this peaceful old province, which is one of the most well-known floating markets in Thailand, and the canal system may be explored at your own pace on a traditional longtail boat.
- You can go for a stroll and take in the views as well as do some souvenir shopping and try some delectable regional specialties.
- After your shopping and culture fix, say goodbye to Ratchaburi and head north on the road to Kanchanaburi, home to the world-famous ‘Bridge over the River Kwai’ that was built during the Second World War.
- Take your time to explore this iconic structure, together with the nearby war museum, which gives an excellent insight into the horrors that unfolded during the bridge’s construction.
- Afterward, there is time to visit the poignant War Cemetery, containing the remains of 6,982 allied prisoners of the war, most of whom lost their lives during the construction of the bridge and rail route stretching to Burma.
- This full-day tour includes lunch at a local restaurant, and you will be brought back to the hotel afterward.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodation: Hotel in Bangkok

DAY 4: BANGKOK - FLY TO CHIANG MAI - HALF-DAY CITY TOUR IN THE AFTERNOON

Morning

- You will have some free time after breakfast until driver picks up at hotel then transfer to airport for the flight to Chiang Mai.

- Upon arrival, driver welcomes you at airport then takes you to hotel and start the half day city tour in Chiang Mai.

Afternoon

- You will have a chance to discover some of the oldest and most interesting Buddhist sites in Chiang Mai on this Old City tour today:
 - 1st stop: Go first to the magnificent Wat Chedi Luang, which translates to "large temple" in the traditional language of northern Thailand. Even though time has taken its toll on the ancient structure, this is a fine example of Lanna-Buddhist architecture.
 - 2nd stop: Continue on to the second temple, Wat Phra Singh, also known as the Temple of the Lion Buddha, and it is a great place to learn about the history of Lanna art and literature.
 - 3rd stop: Stop by Chiang Mai's oldest temple, Wat Chiang Man, a majestic monument built in the 1300s which attracts many tourists to come there.
 - Wat Suan Dok is the last destination on this tour, where you can look at the huge Bronze Buddha that's been there for 500 years before you take the quick trip back to your hotel.
- Vietgreen's driver will take you back to the hotel, unwind and prepare for the next day.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodation: Hotel in Chiang Mai

DAY 5: LOCAL LIFE - CHIANG MAI RICKSHAW EXPLORER

Morning

- After breakfast, be gathered at Tha Pae Gate, our meeting point for today's private tour.
- Ride a traditional Rickshaw, which has been used in Thailand for over 60 years, to see the beautiful city of Chiang Mai without contributing to pollution.
- Relax as you take in the sights of the vibrant neighborhood of Wat Puak Tam from the comfort of a rickshaw and explore this one-of-a-kind artisan settlement, where stunning brass decorations and regalia are crafted by hand.
- Keep an eye out for the exquisite golden parasols in Southeast Asian temples, and discover the backstory of a restaurant in Chiang Mai that is also known as women's prison and enjoy their unique Thai snack.
